

In Memory: Nana Adu-Pipim Boaduo FRC

Dr. Nana Adu-Pipim Boaduo FRC was born in Ghana. After graduating in 1973 as a professional certificated teacher from Offinso Teacher Training College, he taught at Methodist Primary School at Eduadin in the Ashanti Region of Ghana. From October 1974 to August 1976 he studied at the University of Cape Coast at Winneba Advanced Teacher Training College campus. From September 1976 to August 1980 he worked for the Ghana Ministry of Education at Agogo State Secondary school, Agogo. From September 1980 to December 1983 he taught at Government Girls Secondary School, Kaduna State and Uavande Girls School near Aliade in Benue State both in Nigeria.

While in southern Africa he taught in secondary and high schools in Lesotho, the former homelands of Venda and Gazankulu. He studied with the College of Preceptors in the UK (1986-1988) and obtained the ACP (1986) and LCP (1988) qualifications respectively. From 1993 to 2001 Dr. Boaduo studied with Vista University for his M.Ed. (1996) and Ph.D. (1998) and the University of the Free State for the Master in Development Studies (2001). From March 1992 up till December 1997 Dr. Boaduo served in different capacities at Lemana College of Education as lecturer, senior lecturer and head of department. From 1998 to 2001 he was appointed Geography subject advisor in the Soutpansberg District of the Limpopo province of South Africa. From 1999 to 2001, he was appointed as Vista University Distance Education coordinator at the Lemana College Campus, Elim in the Limpopo province. He joined the University of Botswana from August 2004 till February 2008. He has written and published numerous articles in hard print and on line as well as presented seminar, and conference papers and organized workshops for professional teacher development. Currently, he is appointed as Senior Lecturer, Faculty of Education, School of Continuing Professional Teacher Development, Walter Sisulu University in Mthatha, Eastern Cape Province of South African and Affiliated Researcher: Faculty of Economic and Management Sciences, Centre for Development Support (Bloemfontein Campus) University of the Free State: South Africa.

Dr. Nana Adu-Pipim Boaduo FRC was appointed managing editor of The Journal of Pan African Studies (now, Africology: The Journal of Pan African Studies) in 2007, a contributor and co-contributor of the journal, an energetic member of the editorial board in his editing of articles, and in our collective effort to gain accreditation from the South African Department of Higher Education and Training for The Journal of Pan African Studies, he stood as our planned international coordinator of the journal at Walter Sisulu University, Mthatha in the Eastern Cape.

He published twelve academic textbooks with Lambert Academic Publishing in Germany, and several articles in The Journal of Pan African Studies (e.g., Introduction of Political Education for the Propagation of Democracy in Africa: The Perspective of an African Academic; Undeniable Complacency of Western World Anthropology Scholars Ignorance in Acknowledging the Equality of Human Races: Revisiting Antenor Firmin in the New Millennium; Introduction of Political Education for the Propagation of Democracy in Africa: The Perspective of African Academics, Part II (co-authored with Saline Monicah Babitseng Boaduo). Dr. Nana Adu-Pipim Boaduo FRC joined the ancestors in 2014 (we received notice, February 2016). He will truly be missed. May he rest in peace, forever.